“ Uncle Henry was a great man, a great Farther, Husband, and all around friend. I remember when I was living and working with Henry when they lived in Odem, TX. He gave me a place to live and work when I needed it. I remember when he came and got me out of jail when I was 16. Fist thing he said was what kind of bird doesn't fly. Then he said he needed to get to the bank before they tried to cash the check he just wrote to get me out. and laughed.

All of my aunts and uncles were great people always helping each other. I miss the old days, but time moves on. We were cousins that were raised almost like brothers and sisters.

PS I had a lot of people get me out of jail. Lol

“ Henry was my uncle, though not blood related. He was a down to earth good guy, who always had a joke or kind word for me. I will always be grateful.
