“ It's hard to pick a single memory to share because they all are great. Grampy was always so much fun to be around. Grampy had this contagious laugh that he did. Grampy was also a jokester; any chance he got we would be sitting down watching TV and out of nowhere he would point and say "Look!" I would look and he would flick my earlobe.

When we were outside he would ask "Is that a high flying chicken?!?!?" nearly every time he saw a seagull pass by us. If anyone knew Gramp, then you would know his most iconic phrase to say was "Where's GeeBo?" To this day I'm still not really sure who GeeBo was(is). If something didn't go as planned he would say GeeBo did it. Lol.. Grampy was a goofball, but that's what I loved about him the most.

I really do wish I got to see him more before he left us to spread his laughter up in the heavens. I know for sure he will be looking out for us up there while making the Big Man upstairs laugh.

I miss and love you Grampy.
