“ The first time I met Angenelle was through her friend, Kathy Lucchese, at her home in Beeville. Since she didn't answer the door, we walked to her back yard where we found her dressing a deer that she had hanging from her tree! Another time, we all vacationed to Vail, CO. When we entered our condo, we wondered why her luggage was so heavy. She opened it to reveal it was loaded with canned food...she said "Well, we have to EAT, don't we??? Of course, this was pre-Weight Watchers! She was a loving and great friend to so many, and will be greatly missed. I will always remember her giggle and devilish twinkle in her eyes! I'm sure we will party again some day, my Friend!
