“ Annie Mae was my dad's, Hershell Merritt, cousin, do by default she was mine as well. She had a good heart and was hoot to talk to. We used to visit her and Rufus in GW alot when I was growing up. We'd hunt bullfrogs in the pond by their house and go to the VFW on Saturday nights. Sunday morning Annie Mae would make breakfast... usually enough for 15 people. There were eggs, homemade jams and biscuits, bacon, sausage, gravy, grits and... calf brains. They looked like scrambled eggs. I ALWAYS eat my eggs fried... LOL. We lost contact over the years until we reconnected when I was doing the family tree. She was a fountain of information. I will miss those conversations. She was a Grand Character and had more energy than anyone I knew. Sleep well, Cousin! Say Hi to Rufus, Gary and my dad. We love you.
