“ So many memories to share I wouldn't know where to begin. I worked with Annie over 15 years and it wasn't a job it was an adventure with Annie. She was my mentor , my friend. I had never fell into meeting someone that felt like family. She filled my life with laughter and tears and the tears were from laughing so hard until I cried. I have to share one story with you that makes me laugh and I hope it makes you laugh too. It was spring break on a Saturday night the stores had started slowing down it was about 9:00 pm or so and I was running the register and Annie was in the restroom and a young man preceded to walk up to the register with a 12 pack of beer and all of a sudden he dashed out the front door and I screamed Annie somebody just stoled some beer and she hollered I'm comin, she came running out of the bathroom pulling up her pants and I said he's done gone he ran down the hill, she said I had to cut it off for that!!. We never laughed so hard and looked down and her pants were still unzipped. One more short story one morning in the kitchen at work i hollered at Annie to bring some mustard from the cooler which was in a gallon plastic jug when she got to the kitchen she accidentally dropped that mustard and it went everywhere it splattered up to the ceiling and was on her glasses, we laughed so hard, then we had to clean it up before jimmy got there so we took white shoe polish we had on the shelf and fixed the ceiling . those white shoe polish spots stayed there for years .we both laughed so hard we cried. I could go on and on, Annie's was a character I couldn't have asked for a more caring and protective person if she liked you she loved you. She was like a mom & my best friend. You have left so many memories in my heart. I will love you forever my friend.
