

Avery Grace Cardona

August 12, 2022 - February 25, 2026

Dateline: Orange Grove, Texas

Avery Grace Cardona, age 3, walked into the gates of heaven on Sunday, February 15, 2026 while surrounded by her loving family following an extended illness. With hearts full of love and sorrow, we remember a precious little girl whose short time on this earth was filled with joy, laughter, and sparkle. She loved watching Bubble Guppies, playing with bubbles, and spending time on her tablet. She had a sweet habit of mumbling as she explored the world around her, and one of the most beautiful words she could say was "mama". Full of energy and curiosity, she loved to run around, bringing smiles to everyone who watched her go. Her favorite color was pink and she adored glitter and all things girly. She brought light wherever she went with her bright spirit, playful nature, and innocent joy. Though she was small, her impact was immeasurable and her memory will forever live in the hearts of those who loved her. She will always be remembered as a beautiful soul who brought happiness, love, and magic into the lives of her family. Her sparkle will never fade. She is preceded in death by her great-grandmother Anita Rodriguez, her great-great grandfather Tiofilo Alaniz, and her Great-Aunt Rita Lynn Alegria.
