“ 30 years ago... my close friend invited me to meet her family in South Texas ..after meeting Beverly I realize I should have met her years sooner! I fell in love with Beverly and South Texas.....so much I moved here in2012. I weep now as I mourn the death of my dear friend who was always there for me. Beverly never met a stranger as she had a special gift for talking to people and making friends... many breakfast gatherings turned into a lunch before you knew it. Time would fly by as she would pour her life into others and nourish people with her love, kindness and her faith in God. She had an innate ability to make each person feel special in their own way. I feel selfish as I just was not done with her here on earth but I'll remember all of our times together and think of her daily.....most of all when I hear the palm trees gently blowing in the wind. I'll see you again my friend 💕💕
