

Bonnie Ann Sellars

August 6, 1939 - December 29, 2025

Bonnie Ann Sellars (Schuldt), age 86, of Boerne, Texas, passed away peacefully on December 29, 2025, at her beloved daughter's home in Orange Grove, Texas. Born on August 6, 1939, in Fredericksburg, Texas, Bonnie lived a life rooted in love with her family and the simple joys that brought her happiness.

Bonnie was preceded in death by her parents, Fred and Margaret Schuldt; her devoted husband of 50 years, Wayne Sellars; her sister Clara Kopecki; her brother Bennie Schuldt and her daughter Rhonda Deskin. Their memories remained close to her heart throughout her life.

She is survived by her loving daughters Rosalind Fuhrken and husband Scott of Orange Grove, and Roberta Brayton and husband Mike of Missouri.

Bonnie's legacy continues through her cherished grandchildren and great grandchildren: Josh Fuhrken and wife Chelsey with son Barrett Wayne; Jared Fuhrken and wife Kacey with sons Rylan and Lincoln; Jacob Fuhrken; Emilee Fuhrken and fiancé Zack; Justin Brayton; Carrie Evans and husband Dave with children Jayden, Tyler, and Rylan; Lisa Araujo and husband Hector with children Lilla and Micah; Jason Ray Mozisek and wife Carrie with children Lailey, Brantley, and Chayson. She also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family members who were dear to her.

Bonnie had a deep love for nature—her plants were a source of joy—and she found peace in the hobbies she pursued around crafting tree house she so enjoyed. But above all else, it was family that defined Bonnie's world. She took immense pride in being there for each member of her family whenever they needed her. Her heart was open to all—there wasn't a person she wouldn't help or a stranger who didn't feel welcome on her back porch. She often said she had six daughters because each of her girls had a girl—those were “her six girls,” as she lovingly called them. Her pride in them was boundless. Bonnie treasured the life she built with Wayne—their home was not just a place but a sanctuary filled with laughter, stories, and enduring love. It was there that countless memories were made and shared with friends old and new.

Bonnie's warmth touched everyone who knew her. Whether sharing stories on the porch or tending to the plants she loved so dearly, she brought light into every space she entered. Her strength, kindness, and unwavering devotion to family will be remembered always.

May Bonnie Ann Sellars' memory bring comfort to those who knew and loved her.
