“ So, Sorry for your family loss. Camilo was a dedicated, conscientious worker. We really depended on him to fix things at school. Later after he retired, he could fix the electric fans etc.that no else could fix at our house. He was truly gifted. Sending prayers to all of you, sons, adopted children, brothers, sisters, grand children Annette and Jack Starr.

“ Condolences to his family, grand daughters. He was a good friend of ours. More like family to us. My parents known him since I was a child. He was a funny person. He was a good electrician and made awesome houses. His wife was my friend as well. She was funny too and how she would tell me she loves Camilo so much and couldn't be without him when she would visit me. He and his wife very nice and was always there for you when you needed them. My parents and I will miss them so much. Good people.. R. I. P Camilo
