“ One of the hard parts of losing a loved one, is reaching for the phone to call them.. and remembering they're no longer there to answer.

Carol was so innocent, and could also distribute some candid wisdom.

When we would talk, she would ask me to pray for/with her.

God used her to stretch me out of my comfort zone.

For you my Carol, I would do this.

I can't wait to see you again my sweet cousin!

“ Carol Elaine is my first cousin. We are a year apart. We have laughed together, cried together, we would sing together, well mostly she made me sing. Lol.. she never had a bad thing to say about anyone ever! Baby girl say hello to the family! You will be missed like no other! You are a true hero! Until we meet again! Your Teresa loves you!
