“ I have many memories of or childhood days living across the street from one another in the Big City of Driscoll. It saddens me to think that life sometimes is cut way to short but God always has a plan that is at times hard to understand. My Condolences go out to Cheryl' Family as they have lost a Mother , Grandmother and Great Grandmother and a Dear Friend to many. May You Rest In Peace Cheryl as you go to be with your Parents and Grandparents once again.
