

Mother Connie M. Flonory

March 11, 1924 - March 12, 2013

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. - John 14 1:3

Connie M. Flonory began her earthly journey on March 11, 1924. She was born to the late Jake and Lula Thompson of Thomasville, Georgia.

She was raised by Christian parents who instilled in her at an early age Christian values, integrity and ingenuity that resulted in a solid and caring family environment.

She accepted Christ as her personal savior at an early age. She was united with Brannen Chapel United Methodist Church where she attended regularly until her health declined.

Connie served throughout her life. Her sweet and friendly spirit resulted in her meeting many people. She enjoyed walking through the house singing and dancing.

She was joined in holy matrimony to the late Andrew Flonory and this union produced a blended family of six children.

She was preceded in death by her husband Andrew Flonory, four children, her mother Lula Thompson, her father, Jake Thompson, a sister, Ruby Moore and two brothers.

On Tuesday, March 13, 2013, Connie mercifully left this world of time to live forever in eternity. God has gained another Angel in Heaven, She is now added to Gods Heavenly family in the world beyond our vision - a place not made by human hands, but a place we call Heaven. Her strong spirit will be missed by many. Her passing reminds us that life is uncertain, but death is sure.

Because love is far greater than death, her memory will forever live in the hearts of a devoted and special friend and companion, Ed Foy Cone of Statesboro, GA; two adored daughters; Mattie Jones of Jacksonville, Florida and Ruby Campbell of Charlotte, North Carolina; a daughter in law Delorise Flonory of Boston Massachusetts; special friends; Carlise Porter, Lucille Hill, and Lavern Rhodes all of Statesboro, GA; thirty-three grandchildren, fifty-eight great grand children, twenty-one great great grand children and a caravan of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Her gifts of encouragement and support will forever live in the hearts of all the lives she touched and those who knew her.

Home Going Service for Mother Flonory will be held on Saturday March 6, 2013 at 1:00 PM at the Brannen Chapel United Methodist Church, 20 Elm Street, Statesboro, GA. Reverend Thomas Norman III, Pastor/Eulogist. Burial will follow in the Bulloch Memorial Gardens. Mother Flonory will lie in state at the church from 11:00 AM until Hour of Service. Public Viewing will be held on Friday March 15, 2013 from 1:00 PM until 6:00 PM at the funeral home. Roberson Funeral Home, 18129 US Highway 301 North, Statesboro. 912-

“ Ms. Connie, I had to pull my self together just to even even write this. When I got the voicemail, my heart skip a beat a few times and I felt as if a part of me left my body. It hurts my hurt to the fullest to know that your are gone now. You where like a mother to me that I never had going up. I remember the nights that I use to spend with you and we would sit down to the table and eat ice cream and talk talk talk! As you would work in your yard we would talk talk talk! Even as I got older our relationship never changed I was always able to talk to you about any and everything. I know that you are in a better place. No more sorrow no more hurt. You are free now from all pain. As you are looking down on us I want you to know that I LOVE YOU to the max and no one can ever replace you in my life.

Love you Always.
