“Connie was a creative person. I met her when she and Larry married and she came to the ball park to watch Larry play softball. A few of us wives were there complaining about being there. Connie reprimanded us saying, "I love watching Larry play softball. I won't miss any of his games." We laughed and said, tell us that again in 5 years. She loved her husband and she loved life. She was creative in many ways. I loved her bears she made and I saw some of her paintings. Condolences to Larry and her children and grandchildren.
