“ My soulmate and sweet wife is now in heaven. The time together was too short. I was blessed to have her in my life. Debra was so strong and amazing. A wonderful mother and a wife that I could always lean on for love and support. Take good care of her God. I know she is happy and resting in peace.

“ Deb was my baby sister. I have a lot of great memories together. At times we butted heads but I still loved her with every fiber of my being. She was a great mommy, daughter, wife, sibling and friend to many. She set her mind to something and that was that. She was so much like my daddy many people called her little Elmer. She accomplished many great things during her short life. I will never forget you sister and the only comfort I can find in all this is you will not suffer no longer and I'll see you again one day. Love your sister, Mecha

*Debra was such a sweet friend and she was always so kind to our family. She helped our family find the perfect home. I will never forget her kindness.
She may be gone from our site, but never from our hearts.
Love, The Kronenberger Family*
