

Delfina Davila

December 19, 1939 - February 21, 2026

Dateline: Oakville, Texas

Delfina “Fina” Davila, age 86, of Oakville, Texas, passed away peacefully on February 21, 2026, surrounded by her loving husband of 64 years, Joe Davila, and their two sons, Jody and Michael Davila.

Born on December 19, 1939, in Oakville, Texas, Fina lived a life rooted in faith, compassion, and service. A devoted daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, she dedicated herself to caring for others and ensuring the well-being of everyone around her.

Fina’s deepest passion was the Bible. As a committed member of the Jehovah’s Witnesses, she spent countless hours helping others gain a clearer understanding of Scripture and develop a closer relationship with God. Her gentle spirit and unwavering faith touched many lives within the congregation and beyond.

She attended school in George West, where she excelled in sports, especially basketball, the game she loved both playing and watching. Later in life, she enjoyed cheering on the San Antonio Spurs season after season with her son Jody.

Fina was a remarkable blend of kindness and strength. She possessed a gentle, loving heart, yet held a righteous indignation that drove her to help anyone in need and to stand up for those who were being taken advantage of. She was the type of person who would give everything she had if it meant easing someone else’s burden.

She loved to cook and bake for her family, filling her home with warmth, comfort, and the smell of good food. Yet she was just as capable and resourceful, perfectly able to hang a picture, change a lock, or paint a room. Her versatility, resilience, and determination were just a few of the qualities that made her extraordinary.

Fina leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and integrity, one that will continue to live on through the family she treasured and the many lives she touched.

Fina was preceded in death by her parents: Ernan and Maria (Antiano) Cortez; and siblings: Elena Rivera, Gilbert Cortez, Frank Cortez, Hernan Cortez.
