“ This is one time I wish we would have had cell phones when we were teenagers and could have taken pictures of us girls going through Donna’s closet telling her we wanted to borrow one of her dresses to wear to the dance. Her face would light up and the smile remained even when she realized we were not serious. I have such fond and countless memories of being in her home throughout my childhood. I was blessed to have a close friend with such a wonderful lady for a mom. RIP Mrs. Campbell. 🙏
