“ I miss you ton's already Tia. I always told you I wish you were still in Oxnard. So many things I wish I could of told you over a hot cup of coffee.. Or the memories I have when you let me stay with you.. From the apartment to the lil house behind Rockies to Hemlock.. I love you Tia and so do my boys.. Thank you for being you. No matter what people thought or said.. You taught me to not let it bother me. That I was a good girl, a good mom, a good daughter. That's all that mattered..then you would say your special word. That I cant say and give me a kiss. Look over me and my kids. I will never stop loving you.....

“ I remember when she was working at the restaurant and I was hanging out with her behind the counter one day and out of the blue, she said, “Hey Gretchen, do you remember when you were skinny?”

Typical Emma!
