Fernanda Silveyra Webb (Fay or Fe') passed away peacefully in her home surrounded by family after an extended illness on January 22, 2026. Fe' was born on May 30, 1936 in Inde, Durango, Mexico to Felipe Silveyra Carreon and Valeria Acosta Aguirre. Her father, Felipe, was a farmer in Durango and a silver miner in Mineral de Cieneguillas. Her mother, Valeria, was a homemaker and a mother of 12 children, including Fe'. Fe's home town was located in a high desert plateau which holds seasonal lakes called the Comarca de la Laguna which are surrounded by the mountains of the Sierra Madre and Sierra Jimulco. It was there she graduated from high school and later earned a degree in Cosmetology from the Instituto De Belleza- Gómez Palacio. Fe' met the love of her life, John Campbell Webb, in 1967 and they were married in October of the following year in Raymondville, Texas. They moved to the family ranch in Three Rivers in 1976 where they raised their two children, Riley Edgar Webb (wife-Jennifer Webb) of Three Rivers, Texas and Ruby Karla Webb of San Antonio, Texas.

Fe' leaves behind both of her children and four grandchildren, Kelsey Webb Johnson (husband Andrew Johnson) of Bluff Dale, Texas, Kailey Brooke Webb of Three Rivers, Texas, Trista Faith Webb of San Antonio, Texas and JonRiley Cooper Webb of Three Rivers, Texas. Fe' also leaves behind one brother, Elias Acosta Silveyra and five sisters, Guadalupe Silveyra Jardon,

Fe' was a wonderful and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She loved to be around her large family and filled the room with laughter and songs. Those old Spanish ballads (which she loved) were always sung acapella to her loved ones (upon their insistent request) during those late night get-togethers, which lasted from dusk to dawn.
