

Gonzalo Gonzales Sr.

August 23, 1953 - July 30, 2020

Dateline: Alice, Tx.

Gonzalo Gonzales Sr., age 66, passed away at a local hospital following an extended illness. He was born in Corpus Christi, Tx. to Serafin and Maria Gonzales on August 23, 1953. He loved reading, studying, and sharing the bible. He would call and text all of his family daily. He also loved BBQ-ing on Sundays. Gonzalo Gonzales Sr. was an avid musician. He played bass, acoustic guitar, electric guitar, and his favorite was the bajo sexto aka the mexican 12 string guitar. He also sang lead and backup vocals. He was a member of Conjunto Irresistible. His favorite song is Irresistible by Conjunto Bernal and with the love of that song his band name was formed.

“ My favorite memory with Gonzalo has to be at mine and Crystal's wedding, we had so much fun singing and dancing all night at karaoke. He sang "Freddy Fender - before the next tear drop falls" litterelly three times that night and we sang a couple of Beatles songs together, we had a blast! He's has always made me feel like part of the family, I know he was proud to call me his son-in-law and I was proud to call him my father-in-law I was fast to brag about my father-in-law and awesome he was at bajo sexto
