“ Oh the stories that could be told about this wonderful young man!! Loving Husband, Proud Father, & to many A Great Friend!! I loved his contagious laugh & his beautiful smile. I loved how he bragged on his kids. I loved how he made his wife feel special. I loved how periodically he would call just to check on me & Jimi D but most of all I loved how he loved life!! He was certainly taken from all of us too soon & while we don't understand why, we have to take comfort in knowing that God is with us, now & always!!! Turn to him for comfort & he will give you rest!! Go rest high my nephew, my friend. Go rope like a champ, getter tight & penalty free!!

“ Jordynn~~My heart is so sad after hearing about your dad!! I will never forget meeting you and your dad the 1st time. I believe we were at a rodeo in Hondo. He was such a nice young man that had the cutest little girl!! He was so kind and such a fun person to be around. I knew from the beginning that you were a special light in his life!! I know that Mayce has great memories of all of you spending time together. From just hanging out--to the lake--& of course the horses and rodeos!! Memories will be something that you will always have. They will help us all to get thru this time. Just remember every time that you ride in an arena your dad is looking down on you smiling and saying good luck and do your best!!! What a great dad he was!!

Kandice!! I am so sorry about Jeff. My heart is just breaking for you and Jordi. We never know what God's plan is but we have to believe and be strong for those around us!! I wish that I could be there to help in some way. But my prayers are with both of you and the rest of your family!! He will be greatly missed but live in our memories forever!!

“ I remember Jeff and Kandice taking Keaton and Lexi to the lake on the weekends. They never failed to txt crazy pics through out the day... Like him letting them drive the boat. He had to be pretty crazy to let them drive his boat! They would come back with so many stories and smiles ear to ear. He had such a big heart and they were crazy about him.

“ Riding horses playing tag on 134th. How excited I was when you got sea doo's, hadn't even heard of them before. When you rubbed cooling gel all over my back after I got super sunburned at the lake with your family. Lol maybe shouldn't have told that one. You were a great person my dad and uncle thought u were the greatest. They were right. Gonna miss ya brother. I'm so sorry I didn't spend more time or make more of an effort to see you.

“ I remember meeting your beautiful family in Coleman, Ok for the very first time. I met Kandice first and then Jeff. I recall how you guys would bicker and tease each other and thinking how precious and hilarious I thought y'all were. Kandice always so feisty and fiery and Jeff so easy going and funny. After that rodeo our families spent a lot of time together. I always looked forward to hanging out and sharing good times. I was disappointed when Jeff moved to Texas but was thrilled to find out Kandice would soon follow behind. Never did I think that this beautiful family would have such a painful story to tell. I know that God is the author and finisher and I KNOW that His ways are greater than our own. But my flesh is weak and my heart hurts for the loss. Jeff you will be truly missed and never forgotten but I know that the love you knew from your friends and family will keep you alive. Hope the view is amazing from where you are!!

“ I just briefly got the pleasure of meeting Jeff and getting to know him. I met jordyn and kandice first and could tell even before I met Jeff that they loved him so much and that he was a kind and loving man. Jordyn would light up when she would talk about her dad. He was always a sweetheart to me when I was around and he did not know me that well. I love kandice and jordyn and my heart aches for them. I know Jeff is up in heaven now smiling down on his family and friends and wishing the same thing as everyone else, that he could be here with his loved ones.
