“ Johnny, you have always been my favorite cousin. We grew up together and there will always be a special place in my heart for you. I'm glad I was able to say goodbye to you. I was afraid I would not have the opportunity. God has forgiven you and welcomed you with open arms. You are with those loved one who preceded you. You are not suffering and all is good for you. ”

Our prayers are with your daughters and their families, that they will grieve and each day be a little bit better for them. Their memories of you will bring laughter, perhaps tears, and peace to their hearts.

Love you always.....
