“ Tonyboy ah Tonyboy...I wish you could still be here but i know you were sick & tired of being sick & tired. I'm grateful that we (you, mom & i, bixby) were able to spend time with you at Meredian nursing home patio few days ago. You were actually smiling & trying to talk. Looking back now, you had this gleam in your eye almost like i think you knew you'd be going to your heavenly home a few days later. You always were & now always will be one of God's special angels. You have NO earthly disabilities now & you can now speak, walk, & hug your mom, sister, dad, pets, & other family in heaven as you rejoice being in our heavenly Father's presence. Say hi to everyone up there & watch over us all. You are free to do what eluded you throughout your whole life...to laugh, to talk, to dance, to hug..to just be you. I love you uncle Tony...love your niece Meredith.
