EH

I was just thinking of my dear friend Emma today and was sad to see the lost of yalls dear Jose "Pepe" Franco few years back..I believe he was the oldest brother of Emma's and I still remember him coming to Mr and Ms Franco's house when emma and I would come visit from Austin in the mid 70s..I will forever have loving and beautiful memories of the Franco family of my time with yall and how so very sweet all of you were to me, this young woman from Austin..I pray for all of you and plz have peace in knowing Pepe was greeted with all his loved ones when God called him home .. also for our heavenly Father to continue to give 🙏 yall strength as he watches over each and everyone of you. So, thank you for the past wonderful memories and especially how kind the Franco family was to me. I will carry those memories forever in my heart.

*With Sincerity,
Emily*
