“ My dearest Leo My first born. My heart is shattered into a million pieces. I'm lost without you. I just want to hear your voice and see your beautiful face again. Bella is so beautiful. You were a wonderful dad. Your sister Starla is devastated. You were her only sibling. We miss you more than you would have ever realized! Your heart was so pure. You cared so deeply. Your friends are left just as shocked as we are. I'm not supposed to bury my son! I love you son! I'm so sorry I wasn't a better mother that you could have told me how bad you were hurting! You didn't have to pretend to be so strong! I will hold this guilt forever; I love you more than you'll have ever known son! I love you to infinity! Until we see Each other again! Hugs and Kisses! Please tell Jesus I'm sorry!

Family is one of those most precious gifts, but at the same time it can generate the most profound pain that can't be contained at times, but to have those moments of time with those in this journey is worth it all though sometimes shorter than we would like. This life is a vapor, so cherish your time here with family and friends till we gather on the other side together. This isn't a final farewell for Leo and this precious soul, but it's "until we meet again" Gal 2:20-21kfv. Our hearts ache for you today for you and your family Sis, but joy cometh in the morning. Love you
