“ Aunt Lesvia - it was wonderful to see you in San Antonio before you took your leave. Even then, you continued to have your beautiful, infectious smile and unwavering humor! You were, to me, "the cool aunt". You were an amazing person. Always positive, laughing, dancing and full of hugs. My memories are too many to list, though I remember you doing your hair and "straightening" it before straighteners existed ! !....doing your make-up on date nights with Uncle Jack. My favorite memory was traveling to Michigan via train with Grandma and Grandpa to visit you and Uncle Jack. HIGHLIGHT !! Grandma and Grandpa were always laughing and happy with you and Aunt Lydia's presence-excitement brewed during any pending visit from you both. You are TREMENDOUSLY MISSED and will NEVER be forgotten. You were impactful to many lives. Rest easy dear Aunt. Visit from time to time! Until we meet again. Love Linda Ann Flores Hernandez
