Our beautiful, loving mother, Manuela Ambriz Salas, entered heaven on Monday, December 16, 2024 at the age of 94 at her residence in Alice, Texas surrounded by her loving family. Manuela was born in Hidalgo, Texas on February 27, 1930 to San Juana Vela and Jesus Ambriz. Throughout her life, Manuela enjoyed various hobbies, but her passion for cooking was at the top of her list. She worked as a cook for 17 years at Canales Café and still came home to cook for her family daily. Her generosity was endless.

Manuela or as her grandchildren would call her "Wela Meme" was always ready to spend time with her family. She loved having everyone over and making people laugh. Her kindness was contagious. Most of her grandchildren grew up drinking her homemade tea and listening to her talk about the good old days and her life growing up.

She instilled numerous valuable lessons in every story that will remain with everyone forever, emphasizing the importance of resilience and unconditional love. Everyone who had the privilege to meet her will deeply miss her and will always remember her wise words of wisdom and prayers.
