“ Mom had a funny side to her in the little things she did. She also had her serious side but most of all she was a strong believer in God and her faith was immense. Helping people was one of her missions in life especially during the holidays. She taught CCD for many years but not only taught mom, made it a point for her children to know our religion. Growing up cold, rainy or hot she would drive us to our classes. Mom loved her rose garden and her plants. In saying that I can only imagine her going up to heaven with beautiful colorful rose bushes on each side. Mom you are now with dad and Jesse May you Rest In Peace. Thank you for giving me life most of all teaching me about God and to believe. Now join dad in a dance because he so much wanted to dance at the end of his time. Jesse will be standing by with a big smile and his dimples watching both of you together after so many years. Mom I will always love you.
