“ My name is Joyce Ellen Molina. Ray Molina jr.s daughter in McAllen. I'm deeply sad in the passing of uncle Mac. He always referred to me as "La Que Canso El Pero" I was a hyper kid and he gave me a dog named Ringo. He was always in good spirits. I wish I could find his military career. It would be nice. Lots Of love and hugs for everyone.

“ Dear Primos y Primas: Please accept our condolences on the passing away of your father and our Tio Mac. He was an inspiration to our family and well loved by all of us. Tio Mac was kind, warm, and always had a great story to share with us. He gave us much joy and we owe much to him and his generation for all the opportunities he gave us. Un abrazo, we will have Tio Mac and your family in our prayers tonight, and forever in our hearts. Richard santos y familia in Nuevo Mejico y Tia Rita in Mcallen Tx.
