“ Having learned of Mike's passing on Thursday 27 July 2023, a chapter in my life closed. Mike was an extremely colorful person. He in his youth never sat still. He was always full of life. He helped my father drive my mother nuts with their all night domino games usually accompanied by Pearl Beer and cigars.

I knew him very well even though he was a classmate at Carroll H.S. Of My younger brother Robert M. Dalton. Robert and he drifted apart after Bobs first marriage.

Mike often referred to him as Bob the butler as his wife so dominated him.

I was living in the Bluff on Nassau and Mike called me one night about 2200

And asked would I come get him. He loved to drink, he told me he was as sober as a judge but was afraid to drive(Rightfully so) he was with a buddy named Joe Rackley. When I arrived at the establishment, I could not find Mike. After looking he was in Restroom standing stifly agains wall, eyes glazed over and repeated he was as sober as a judge. I carried him out of the place and my wife and I put him to bed.

Another really humorous event, as we were gigging for flounder in Laguna Madre. Mike exclaimed he saw one and quickly gigged his foot. That was my last flounder gigging trip.

There were a lot of other colorful incidents I could write a book about, but I will leave it at that.
