“ As you go through life, there are people (family, friends) who may not always agree with the decisions you make. More importantly, there are some, even if it's just one person, who will stand quietly, refusing to judge you for that decision, and offer their hand to help anyway. This was you, Coach!
I never got the chance to tell you "thank you" and that your gesture meant so much to me, but I am saying it loudly now, because I know you can hear me. You will always be special to me. 💔😞😭 Rest In Peace

“ Coach. You taught me so much about myself that maybe I didn't realize completely for years after. The discipline and strength I learned from being your athlete at PHS all those years ago has carried me through life. You made us champions on the court and off. Rest In Peace

“ Don't know where to start, YOU MY FRIEND WILL BE TOTAL MISSED. Gonna miss that sense of humor that you always shared and the long talks we had in Ms. Susie Brown workroom. If the walls could talk (lol). Well and faithful servant and friend .

“ I was selfish and immature and you loved me anyway. I was short-sighted and impulsive and you loved me anyway. I hated you and was disrespectful and you loved me anyway. I didn't give you any credit and you gave me all of it. I was too proud and bullheaded... And, well, you were too! BUT I loved you anyway and you loved me. You cannot truly be gone because you are in every athlete you ever blew a whistle for. We'll take it from here, coach. Love you. Jaye
