“ Shorty you and your family have been a long time friend of our family. You are a man with a huge heart and very caring. You would help anyone who needed help. What I loved the most about you, is how much you loved your family. You always made sure wife and kids had what they needed and they were never without. I appreciate you and your wife opening your door to us letting us stay with y'all. I love you Shorty. God bless you and your family. You can now rest in peace. I love you Shorty.
