“ He was a good man.. It had been 13 years I had been his neighbor and he was always so kind to My brothers and I. I remember he would always bring us food and popcorn when he had. One birthday he and his wife passed a 5 dollar bill through the fence in our back yard for my birthday.. I will miss him dearly. Rest in piece Mr Perez.

Our most heartfelt condolences to all the Perez family. Eternal rest grant unto Pablo Oh Lord and may perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest peacefully in paradise. Amen May God bless the family with His peace, healing, strength and comfort at this difficult time. I remember Pablo and his beautiful wife Sara always together. I remember him going to pick up his grandkids at Salazar School. They brought up a beautiful Christian family. May they both rest peacefully in paradise. What beautiful pictures of the whole family, only one thing was missing, his guitar. I witnessed several services where he and Refugio (Cuco) would play and sing. He really served the Lord and his fellow SIC and BIC. May God continue the family.
