“ The Christmas we were all together is one of my favorite memories. He was so tickled pink to have all his kids and grandkids under one roof plus us.

He took us shopping and we had a good time cooking that Christmas. He's the only person who could have talked my mom into driving all the way to Dallas to celebrate Christmas . ❤️

“ I still remember the time we woke up at 4 am to drive all the way to Dallas to try and make it by lunch to see Michelle. I loved staying up and seeing the sunrise with you and we'd stop for tacos and you'd drink coffee. We were at a stop light and this guy on a Harley pulls up and peels out so loud we both hollered and laughed our asses off after that cause it scared us. We always talked about that time, I miss our road trips most and me being your sidekick everywhere and every weekend somewhere new just to go and see the scenery. I miss you thank you for always encouraging me to travel and learn new things like rollerblading and how to fix my car up on my own. You mean the world to me.

“ When I was going through my rough patch,at home, of comforting my love , a knock at my door was heard and Lord and behold their was your dad, Roberto, who came and saw Tony. This happened not once but three times, this was the kind of man he was very considerate and when he left it wasn't goodbye , it was Aye te watcho. Love you always Roberto you will have always have a special place in my heart, hasta luego aye te watcho.
