“ We are so very sorry Momma Rosa was always such a kind and loving woman to Gregory and me from the very beginning and even though there are no words... it was a pleasure knowing your mom brother Mike.

She was so sweet to us and she didn't even have to be each time she saw Greg and I "me the third wheel" ..always with you and Elaine back in the day she just opened up her arms with love and kindness.

Thank you for sharing her she showed me how a mom can be so different and how grandmother's adored thier grandchildren and how we too can be different. I LOVED the most recent family photos of even the youngest grandchild or great grandchild knew thier Grandma Rosa with such love so special that is and so beautiful. I'm so glad we will see her again as she awaits for us with our father in heaven. Thank you for sharing your family with us brother Mike and May the Lord comfort all your broken hearts and bring you all peace. God Bless You All. 🙏

With heavy hearts and uplifted spirits
