“ She made me a grandmother, a very proud grandmother. She was born in Lafayette LA and that was a blessing. Her parents shared Sam’s young early days of her life with me and my family. We of course loved her spoiled her cuddled her and enjoyed every minute with her. Our Sam was a happy child always full of energy. She will forever be in my heart. Our good times together with her will be forever be the memories I will keep in my thoughts . May she forever rest in peace in the arms of our loving God. We live you,

Towards the end of December, we were at Walmart together. Getting flu shots and did some catching up. She called me the next day and we had a long conversation about the Bible. I will tell you that she absolutely accepted Christ as her Lord's savior. She was baptized to wash your sins away, clean this snow. So I know when I go I will be able to see Sam when it's my time. Because I know I've got Christ in my heart and I know where I'm going. I'm just not ready to go yet, but I just want to let you know. Let I know for a fact. On the 27th or sixth, whatever it was, we talked for over an hour. And I took a real, long discipleship class on to how walk people over and make sure that they understand the father. The son in the Holy Spirit and how they get to heaven is you can't be a sinner and how you cannot be a sinner, as you accept Christ, to be your Lord and savior. And when you pass away and october that I said, when you pass away, you're going straight to heaven. If a plane hit through a fried now and what you told me you believe. I'm a hundred percent sure that god's got you got you covered, honey

“ Sam,

I have had so much trouble sitting here trying to find the words to put in this little square box to somehow summarize how I feel and every time I try I can't get it right. It's not sufficient or comes across cheesy (which I know u wd hate) So here's what I have.

Thinking of you with a heavy but loving heart. You were so important to me, and the space you left behind is so real. I carry the memories, the love, and even the unfinished conversations with me every day. I hope you're finally at peace, free from the weight you carried for so long. You and I weren't always friends but u were and will always my sister. I can never tell you how grateful I am for everything u did and tried to do for me, but I am. So with that just know you will never be forgotten, and I love you. 💔

“ Samantha was very special to me. She was my son's first Lil girl crush I think. I always thought she was so beautiful. We would message each other from time to time thru the years and I was impressed by her accomplishments at such a young age. She is missed, always will be! Much love to all concerned...

“ She was a force, she was a lock and key. It's so hard to find good friends and she was mine. She wasn't afraid and I admired her in so many ways. Sam did things in her own way, she was a proud mother and loved hard. She accomplished so much and it was hard to say no to her. She is beautiful and she lives through her children. Her drive and soul is in each and every one of those kids. I have known this beautiful girl my whole life, sam deserved the world but not everyone deserved Sam. My prayer is her mom, sisters and her kids always walk tall, be just brave, fearless, and love hard. And if someone rains on your parade then dance in it.... sam did. And man of man was she amazing. And if the lord gave her wings then help us all. Never forget who she was, who she is. I love you Sammy always.
