“Mawmaw Janie loved us all and she always made sure we knew. She had a way about herself that always made everyone feel welcome and special. My Mawmaw always told me that because my Father the Lord was King, I was a princess. One of the things I’ll always admire about her was that she saw everyone around her as a child of God and did her best to love them. She said, “Sometimes, we are the only Bible that people ever read, so we have to love each other.”
