I could not really speak at the funeral, but I wanted to say a few things about my granny. Granny loved us, and wanted to be a part of our lives. She always listened and was interested in what was going on in them. She would tell me when I would visit with her that she prayed for us every day. Mathew 5:41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain. (She always went the extra mile.). I saw her give when she did not have enough for herself, but God always honored that. He took care of her. She was a giver in so many ways, but she mostly gave love. She loved with such a Christ-like love. Last Saturday, I'm sure that all of Heaven rejoiced as my dear sweet granny finished her race and stepped into eternity. She will no more feel sorrow or pain, she will be with our Lord Jesus. "In the City Where the Lamb is the Light," which she would always sing, there she will be. If I had the choice of picking a grandmother, I would always pick her. God so abundantly blessed us with her. Some grandmothers can give lots of material things and treasures, but she gave the greatest gifts of all, love, time, and prayer. I will treasure her forever in my heart. I am forever thankful that she was in my life and I am looking forward to seeing her again, "Just Over in the Glory Land." I love you so much Granny! ❤️
