“ Tommy Joe was like a brother to me. Memories I treasure are at the old Oakville Baptist Church - that was our life back then. I played the piano and Tommy Joe led the singing. No one knew who was leading who at the time. Then we (14 of us) were all baptized together after receiving salvation during VBS. Oh, yes, and Tommy Joe almost every time, would beat me in ping pong - 1 of our youth activities. Yes, to me he was a brother in so many ways. Now, he has joined the rest of his family - is at peace and I just bet he may be leading some singing up there.
