“ Levi and Francis,

I was deeply saddened to hear about the passing of your father, Truman. He was truly a good man—faithful, kind, intelligent, and hardworking in every sense.

My father, Abel, held a close friendship with him, and I know their years together at Southwestern Bell were filled with mutual respect and shared experiences that meant a great deal to both of them. Men like your father leave a lasting impression not only through their work, but through the way they carry themselves and treat others—and Truman did that with quiet strength and integrity.

Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts during this difficult time. His legacy lives on through both of you.

*With heartfelt sympathy,
Judith*
