“ Brenda and family, My deepest condolences to all of you. I was fortunate to have known your father thru work. He was such an attentive phone man to the Appraisal District. But more than anything else, he was a true gentleman and friend. He will be missed deeply by all. He was so proud of his grandchildren and always kept me updated with your kids. May you be guided thru this difficult time with Gods love. Your friends, Richard, Esther, Allan, and Bo.

“ *Margie, Brenda, Darrell and Buddy...I'm shocked and so saddened at this news! Bud was one of the finest men I've ever known! As just a Tennessee kid, kinda stranded in Texas, the entire Surber family adopted me...I have so many good memories of those years! It was always special when y'all visited Blanco...as for a single memory of Bud, that's a tuffie - there are so many...I'm on business in Louisiana and can't attend, but I will be thinking of you.
