“ Uncle Bill is one of my fondest memorys. Uncle Bill and aunt Betty Jo used to take us to their house when we were kids, we played with Richard and just hung out at their house. They had nothing but love for all of us. Every time I made it to the family reunion, uncle Bill would say "I'm so glad you made it". He always made us feel loved. I loved him so much and will miss him.

“ I loved watching him piddle around as he toured the neighborhood on his golf cart. When he could, he was always helping others. He was a very sweet man.
